

Course Description: Writing Clinic

Title	Writing Clinic
Academic year	2021-2022
EC	1
Level	600
Language	English
Hosted by	Leuven University

Admission requirements

The writing clinic is meant for NISIS members. In order to register, please send a description of the chapter you want to discuss to nisis@uu.nl before 10 September 2021.

Please note that the number of available places is limited. You will receive an e-mail to inform you whether you have been selected for the clinic. If that is the case, you will be asked to send your updated chapter/paper to nisis@uu.nl around two weeks prior to the Autumn School (deadline t.b.a.).

Description

During the Autumn School held at Leuven University from 8-12 November 2021, NISIS is organizing a one-day writing clinic on Friday 12 November. Together with the other participants, you will discuss a chapter of your master thesis or dissertation, or another dissertation-related paper you have finished writing or are still working on. This writing clinic will give you the opportunity to receive in-depth feedback from senior researchers other than your PhD supervisor(s), as well as from master and PhD peers.

Course objectives

- Enlarging and deepening the already existing knowledge of Islam and Muslim societies
- Providing insight and participation in the current academic debate

- Introducing the candidates to an international network of scholars in the field
- Creating an academic community in which research in the field of Islam and Muslim societies can be optimally pursued
- Mediating between a new generation of researchers and innovative disciplinary and interdisciplinary developments, theoretical and methodological initiatives and explorations in the field
- Training presentation, writing and reflection skills.
